*In- store INTEREST FREE financing is available with an initial deposit, first month's payment, and 23 additional automatic monthly payments. This is an agreement to purchase. It is not a rental program. This price is exclusive of tax and installation. Installation charge is a separate fee, is not included in the interest free financing, and must be paid in full at time of installation. Understand that installations are provided by independent contractors who have been vetted by Peak Alkalinity LLC. Payment should be made directly to installer at time of installation. Please see one our associates for complete details.

**The quoted discount price in 12 months is the total price (exclusive of tax and installation) that is paid for the unit if the in-store interest free program is utilized, however, our customer decides to pay a predetermined, reduced balance in month 13 as a final payment. The deposit and all monthly installments made prior are applied in full to the payoff. No decision to take advantage of this program is needed at the time of purchase. Simply inform Peak Alkalinity LLC of your desire as month 12 installment approaches, and we will help you to complete the last phase of your purchase. Please see one of our associates for complete details
